DEDICATION

With love and respect, this 1961 PHOENIX is dedicated to
MRS. W. P. FLY, JR.
For her numerous services to Cumberland University

PRESIDENT, CUMBERLAND UNIVERSITY

DR. ERNEST L. STOCKTON, JR.

A. B., Cumberland University

M. A., Peabody University

LL.D., Cumberland University

When Dr. Ernest L. Stockton, Jr., became President of Cumberland University in July, 1958, it was his "Dream Come True." A son of a former President of Cumberland, and a graduate of this University, he has done an outstanding job in leading the student body and the faculty.

His faith in God and his fellowman is revealed in his work with both the University and the public.

DEAN, SCHOOL OF LAW

GRISSIM H. WALKER

A. B., Cumberland University

LL. B., Harvard University

Cumberland University is fortunate to have Mr. Grissim Walker as Dean of the School of Law. He has the job of guiding the young men who will be our lawyers of tomorrow, and each year it becomes more evident how capable he is of holding this position. By his counseling and example, there is no question of these graduates upholding the excellent reputation so long held by the Cumberland University School of Law.

DEAN, JUNIOR COLLEGE

JACK H. HOWARD

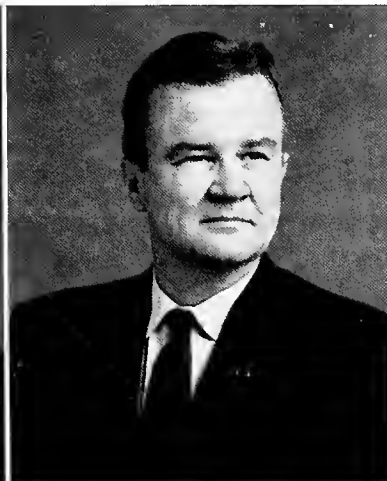

B. S., Maryville College

M. A., Peabody College

Mr. Jack H. Howard, affectionately known as the "Lean Dean," came to Cumberland in 1956 as the youngest academic dean in Tennessee. In the past five years his age has been no hindrance in proving his ability and willingness to work. As both Dean of the Junior College and Instructor of Mathematics, he never fails to have time to listen to even the smallest problem of both faculty and students.
